Ed: I called Bob at Venture Bank and there is only $6300 available in the ADR account. --remember funds from the most recent deposit will not be available until Feb 12. The ADI account has only $200+. The ADGC has about $14,000. Please advise. And, what do you mean..."Make sure it is only $20,000?" I don't ever transfer more than you say. ~Sandy
